Welcome to the Miss Rodeo Canada 2022 Competition

Each participant has the opportunity to garner one of the richest experiences of her life and at the same time create a solid foundation for her future endeavors. Lifelong friendships are made and many doors are opened to all participants.

During the week of the competition, participants are judged on, but not restricted to the following categories:

Personal Interview: Judges will interview each contestant privately. Questions will test for knowledge of professional rodeo, current affairs, and conversational ability, all with an emphasis on grammar and enunciation.

Horsemanship: Contestants will be judged on their ability to control their horse, balance, position of hands, feet and seat. Categories will include: mounting and dismounting, rail work, pattern, impromptu questions based on knowledge of tack, horse science, and terminology, presentation ride (flag and wave lap) during horsemanship, and presentation ride during a CFR performance. Each contestant will draw 3 different horses during horsemanship, and will be assigned a horse during the presentation ride at CFR. Judges and horse owners will answer any questions PRIOR to the start of horsemanship. You will be provided with a blouse and jeans; you may add your own accessories.*

Public Speaking:

1. A 3 to 4 minute memorized speech. Longer than 4 minutes or less than 3 will result in point reductions at the discretion of the judges.
2. Impromptu Questions.
3. Extemporaneous Speech (contestants will be given a topic, word or sentence and will have 2 minutes to prepare a 1 minute speech on that topic)

Written Exam: Contestants will answer questions regarding rodeo knowledge (rules, history, past and reigning champions both in Canada and the US), equine knowledge (common diseases, ailments, and care) and knowledge of the Miss Rodeo Canada organization (its sponsors and history).

Modeling: Posture, confidence, poise, ability to project your personality, the use of the stage, engagement of the audience and ability to show off sponsor clothing as well as the contestant's outfit of choice are all taken into account.

Personality: Judges will look for intelligence, maturity, common sense, a sense of humor, confidence, sincerity, sportsmanship and integrity.

Appearance: Includes neatness and cleanliness of self and apparel. Posture, and the ability to carry herself with confidence, poise and grace. Contestant should choose outfits that reflect fashionable and tasteful western dress that also enhances her own appearance, with an emphasis on outfits that both flatter and fit.

Miss Rodeo Canada Acknowledgement and Release

This is an assumption of risk and release of liability. By becoming Miss Rodeo Canada, you (the applicant) are agreeing to assume certain risks and to release “Miss Rodeo Canada,” the Canadian Professional Rodeo Association, Westerner Park, the City of Red Deer and other parties from liability.

Please Read This Provision Carefully

Applicant acknowledges and agrees that if she is selected as Miss Rodeo Canada, she will be bound by the Rules and Regulations governing the provisions of the Miss Rodeo Canada Agreement and by the following assumptions of risk and release of liability.

Applicant acknowledges that rodeos generally are dangerous activities by their inherent nature and that participants in a rodeo in areas to which access to the general public is restricted (including, without limitation, the rodeo arena, chutes, pens and other areas reserved an intending for use or access by the rodeo participants or otherwise restricted to the general public) exposes the participant to substantial and serious hazards and risk of property damage, personal injury and/or death. Applicant acknowledges that her participation in C.P.R.A. sanctioned rodeos and in other activities as Miss Rodeo Canada, such as (but not limited to) parades and public appearances, (collectively the “Activities”) likewise involved and may expose property damage, personal injury and/or death. Applicant, in consideration of being permitted to participate in the activities in any capacity, does by such participation agree to assume such hazards and risk and does hereby discharge, waive, and release “Miss Rodeo Canada”, the C.P.R.A., C.P.R.A. properties, Westerner Park, the City of Red Deer and any other organization conducting, sponsoring or in any manner involving itself with the subject rodeo (and such persons’ or entities’ affiliated, related or subsidiary companies and their respective officers, directors, employees, and agents) from all claims, demands, and liabilities for any and all property damage, personal injury and/or death occasioned the Applicant’s participation in or involvement with the risks and hazards aforesaid. The Applicant shall not now or any time in the future, directly or indirectly, commence or prosecute any action, suit or other proceeding against the parties so released arising out of, or related to, the claims, demands, liabilities and other responsibilities so discharged, waived and released by such Applicant. The undertakings and covenants of the foregoing provisions shall be binding upon each Applicant, her spouse, heirs, legal representatives, successors, and assigns.

The Applicant acknowledges that being selected as Miss Rodeo Canada Queen constitutes valuable and binding consideration in exchange for which, among other things, the Applicant has entered into this Acknowledgement and Release.

- 3.2 Hat, buckle, crown and banner must be worn at all times while in public, with the exception of the fashion show.

Criminal Offence Definitions

Definitions: For the purpose of the eligibility rules, the following definitions of a criminal offence apply: “guilty” in relation to a plea or a finding, includes an absolute or conditional discharge, “offence” means:

- a) A summary conviction or indictable offence under the Criminal Code (Canada);
- b) A misdemeanor or felony under the criminal legislation of the United States of America or of any state or territory of the United States of America;
- c) An offence under the criminal legislation of any other jurisdiction;
- d) a quasi-criminal offence, for example under the Income Tax Act (Canada) or the tax legislation of any jurisdiction; the immigration legislation of any jurisdiction; or the securities legislation of any jurisdiction;

And excludes

- e) An offence for which a pardon has been granted and has not been revoked under the Criminal Record Act (Canada) or the comparable legislation or any other jurisdiction, and;
- f) An offence, which is an offence only under the motor vehicles legislation of any jurisdiction.

Note: With the exception of offences under Youth Justice Act (RS 2000 ch. Y-1) or its predecessor, the granting of a Pardon with respect to an offence is not automatic, but must be formally applied for and granted to the offender pursuant to the Criminal Records Act (Canada). Therefore, it is not considered appropriate to omit reference to an offence under any statute other than the The Youth Justice Act (Canada) or its predecessor on the basis of an assumption that a Pardon of the offence is automatic after a given period of time.
